

K-Love radio station: my family and I listen to it daily for its encouraging and informative programming. K-Love provides music, news and perspectives that we can't really get elsewhere. They also provide slots for local events and news that help our community. I truly cannot count the number of times that K-Love has provided encouraging, high quality music and programming for my entire family.